Celebraciones

So many of the joyful memories I hold in my heart are centered around celebrations.

This album was recorded before a live audience in celebration for my birthday and as a segue into the holiday season. It was an intimate performance before family and friends. The repertoire for the evening was a mix of the songs I normally perform as well as traditional Christmas villancicos (carols) from Spain.

This is dedicated to those who have gone before us, those who we cherish today, and for those who will be the next to carry the music in their hearts.

I'd like to thank my husband Jeff, parents Angelina and Lawrence, sister Jackie, godchildren Samantha and Patrick, Mike Engeldinger, Daniel Cummins, Greg and Karen Jackson, as well as all my lovely family and friends who have been such firm supporters of my music and artistic endeavors through my years of performing. I love you all!

Alma y corazón,
Amanda
